

NOTIFICATION

When a guest first logs in to "Call a waiter", gets the query wants he to receive notifications from the restaurant. Restaurant send event notifications with offers and discounts. When a restaurant sends a notification, the guest receives notice on his cell phone. The guest will receive a notification regardless of whether he is currently using the application or not. If he wants more information, he click on the notice and gets a complete information page from which he can make a reservation.

In this way hundreds of users are always informed about special events and actions, no matter where they are. This function increases the number of guests and restaurant earnings.

ADVERTISEMENTS AND OFFERS

When starting a guest application, if the responsible person desires, a pop-up advertisement of the sponsor (which is a great system for additional earnings) appears on the screen, or various messages / offers of the restaurant itself.

In addition to an initial advertisement / message, it is possible to have multiple advertisements / messages appearing at defined intervals.
